Where You Learn

Madison, New Jersey, offers the best of both worlds—the comforts of small-town living with the benefits of big city adventure. Just 47 minutes by train from midtown Manhattan, you'll have convenient access to all the action of New York City and a safe, peaceful campus to call home.

Drew Puts You at the Center of Everything

- Located in Madison, New Jersey—a safe, charming town of 16,000
- Just a short walk from campus to beautiful, historic downtown Madison
- One-hour drive to skiing in the Pocono Mountains or sitting on the beach overlooking the Atlantic Ocean
- 20 minutes from Newark-Liberty International Airport
- Hundreds of Fortune 500 companies in the surrounding area
- Easy access to the East Coast corridor including Boston, Philadelphia and Washington, DC

Excitement and Opportunity Await You in New York City

- Attend one of Drew's semester-long programs in New York City: United Nations, Wall Street, contemporary art, communications and media, social entrepreneurship, and theatre.
- Explore iconic American landmarks like the Empire State Building, the Statue of Liberty and Times Square.
- Go shopping on Fifth Avenue or see a Broadway show.
- Get an internship at one of the world's leading companies such as Goldman Sachs, MTV, Pfizer or Ralph Lauren.

Drew University

As one of the country's leading liberal arts universities, Drew attracts students from all over the US and more than 50 countries. From its unique, practical learning programs to the personal relationships with professors, the deep-rooted culture of collaboration and engagement with the greater community is clear from the day you step on campus.

By studying with INTO, you are a Drew University student from day one. Enjoy full access to state-of-the-art university facilities and Drew's comprehensive support services.

About Drew University

Take full advantage of Drew's classic liberal arts education and real-world learning experiences. As a Drew student, you will be able to participate in our one-of-a-kind programs in New York City—at the United Nations, on Wall Street, in the contemporary art scene or in the media capital of the world. If you are interested in science, you'll have exceptional opportunities for advanced research in Drew's Summer Science Institute and the RISE program. No matter what you study, you will graduate with the skills that 21st century employers want.

Full-time Professors Dedicated to Mentoring Students

One of the defining characteristics of a liberal arts education is the commitment of faculty to teaching undergraduates.

One hundred percent of our faculty teach undergraduates and none of our courses are taught by teaching assistants. Every Drew student benefits from this commitment.

Personal Collaborative Relationships

Full-time faculty do more than teach undergraduates: they mentor, advise, debate, challenge and inspire them. Drew's professors care—about you and your learning.

World-class Faculty

Drew's faculty are not only passionate teachers, they are distinguished scholars who earned PhDs from the world's most prestigious institutions including:

- Harvard
- Princeton
- MIT
- Columbia
- Yale
