

Business Undergraduate Pathway Program

The College of Business Pathway Program is designed to provide a route and academic foundation for students wanting to pursue options in business.

About the College of Business

The College of Business takes creative, adventurous students and gives them the tools to succeed when they get their degrees, whether it's a Bachelor's or an MBA. The students travel the world, start their own innovative businesses and learn there's a social return on everything they do - so that when they're ready to head out into their communities, they're ready to make a positive impact.

Program Benefits

- Assured progression to an OSU undergraduate (upon completion of Pathway program and all progression requirements)
- Dedicated academic adviser and progression advisor to help facilitate transition to the university

Experiential Learning for Students

- Close to the Customer Project provides professional and consulting services delivered by faculty/student teams. C2C brings faculty expertise and research experience into the business community and provides students with experiential learning opportunities
- MECOP is an Oregon industry-sponsored, paid internship program for engineering and business students. Students will complete two six-month internships with two (different) "MECOP" companies and gain real-world experience in their fields of study.
- The OSU Advantage Accelerator brings cutting edge ideas to market by connecting innovators and entrepreneurs to the resources needed for success. Business students have the opportunity to work directly with entrepreneurs during all phases of the commercialization process.
